STROUDSBURG HAPPENINGS.

The News of Monroe's Capital Chronicled in Crisp Paragraphs.

STROUDSBURG, Jan. 10. - Two men who were looking at a switch on the Dela-ware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, in East Strondsburg, were ar-rested by an employe of the company and taken before Squire H.S. Drake Tuesday afternoon. There was not suf-ficient evidence to lock the men up and they were accordingly given their liberty. Mrs. William Rafferty dled suddenly at the home of her son-in-law, B. F. Morey, editor of the Monroe Democrat. She had been out during the day visiting friends, and upon returning home in the evening dropped dead immediately upon entering the house with heart failure.

The news of Senator Herring's nomnation was received by the Pattison-Harrity faction of this place with a great deal of favor. Ex Congressman John B. Storm, who was defeated by Allen Craig for president judge of the Carbon Monroe district, indorsed Sen-ator Herring. It is hoped that Chair-man Harrity will not forget old Mon-roe in the distribution of the big Lawrence McDonald Says He Is Innocent of Eis Father's Murder.

Special to the Scranton Tribune Honesdale, Jan. 10 — Squire Snow, of Prompton, appeared before Peter S. Barnes, justice of the peace, at the court house this morning, and at 10.15 a.m. swore out a warrant for the arrest of Lawrence McDonald, who at that time was in joil charged with drunknness, The warrant was given to Constable Brown and twenty minutes later he was brought into court with nis counsel, C. A. McCarty and F. P. Kimble.

'Squire Barnes, read the warrant, stating that W. W. Snow, of Prompton, being sworn, said that on the Seventh of January Thomas McDonald was found dead, and in a condition that in-dicated violence; that a jury was im-panelled and that he acted as coroner; that the jury brought in a verdict stat-ing that the death of Thomas McDon-ald was caused by violence and, to their belief at the hands of Lawrence McDonald,

To the question of guilty or not guilty, the prisoner pleaded not guilty and waived a hearing. The next grand jury, before which Lawrence McDonald will appear, meets Feb. 26.

A committee on programms was appointed, consisting of the following teachers: T. P. Joyce, Minooka; T. G. Osbourne, Pyne; Miss Kate Burke, Taylor: Miss Watkins, Bellevue, and Miss Moosie. This committee will meet in No. 3. school in Minooka next Friday at 4 o'clock p. m., to arrange a programme for the first meeting of the institute. Judging Judging from the interest manifested in school work by the teachers at this first meeting, good results are expected from monthly gatherings. As the meeting was about to adjourn, Mr. Repp. one of the directors of Old Forge school board, called and stated that the teachers of his district had resolved to hold a series of institutes and that they would be glad to join with those of Lackawanna in joint session. This proposition was favorably considered and in the near future a centrally located place may be selected in order that both districts can must together.
